

Himalayan Balsam

seeds pods explode at maturity height: up to 3 m

leaves opposite or in groups of 3, serrated edges flowers rose-coloured to red-purple

Canadian Goldenrod

dense hairy stem at least on the upper part

Giant Goldenrod stem almost glabrous under the inflorescence, often tinted of red Goldenrods Leaves lanceolate, with 3 veins almost parallel height: 1.5 m stems covered with many straight prickles

Japanese Rose

dark abdomen with thin yellow stripes

Asian Hornet 30 mm long On its way to us!

4th segment with a wide yellow-orange stripe

Non-native species to watch out for!

Buddleia Shrub reaching 5 m leaves dark green on the upper side, white and downy on the underside

Rum Cherry

row of white hairs on the lower side leaves rather leathery and shiny

Common Cordgrass

several long spikes each to 40 cm leaves grey-green colour up to 50 cm

Perennial grass with long rhizomes

Tree Groundsel

leaves: 3 to 5 teeth on each side shrub with a silvery appearance during flowering period height: up to 4 m

Asian Knotweed Plant which looks like a bamboo, hollow stems, height: up to 3.5 m Group Giant Knotweed:

leaf base clearly lobed shield-shaped leaves with a flat base

Japanese Knotweed

Giant Hogweed umbels of white flowers with more than 40 rays Height: up to 4 m dark gland clearly visible on the lower side

Tree-of-Heaven 25 m tall leaflets with at least one tooth at their base

Fruit

American Aster

"petals" arranged in a single row, Presence of subterranean stolons

Flowers: big Daisy-like flowers with white, pink or lilac "petals"

height: up to 1.4 m

leaves deeply incised, very divided

